WALDO IS OUSTED!

Mike Smith Does Not File For Reelection On City Council

Marin City's council nominations closed last Tuesday with only enough petitions filed to fill the vacant positions. Election day is Wednesday, February 23, at the Community Center.

Michael Smith, chairman of the council and incumbent member from District C, did not file for re-election. Smith stated that he wished to be free to participate in the 1944 presidential and legislative campaigns and that he thought it best to do so as an individual and not as chairman of the Marin City Council. Smith served three terms in the Washington state legislature and was a leader of that state's Democratic Party before he came to California to work in a war industry.

Replacing Smith on the council from district C will be Thomas S. Roberts of house 111 who was the only nominee from the district.

Jess F. Draper, A65-520, of district B, will be another new face on the community's governing body. He will replace Oliver Engle who recently resigned.

The rest of the council roster will read; district A, W. C. Billingsley, Alex Murphy and Robert Shane; district B, Ed Anderson and Earl James; district C, Art... D'Ettel and Daniel Allen; district D, Albert Barden, Jesse Berry, N. B. Campbell and Dan Lounsbury.

Roberts in a campaign statement this week said, "I want to stand on the platform of fairness and honesty. If I am elected I shall endeavor to bring about a better understanding between the voters, the city council and the Housing Authority.

"Too many times in the past there have been bitter episodes that could almost directly be traced to misunderstandings. If elected I shall exert every effort toward a fair and harmonious government," Roberts concluded.

Volunteers To Hold First Bond Raffle

Marin City Volunteer Firemen hold the first drawing for their benefit War Bond raffle next Sunday at their regular meeting.

The 200 tickets, which were on sale by firemen, were sold out early last week. Each 50-cent ticket is a chance on one of the two $25 bonds being awarded in the money-raising venture.

Proceeds of this month's raffle purchased five turnout coats for volunteers. This is the first in a planned series of monthly raffles to benefit the Volunteer Firemen's treasury.

Cafeteria Is Nearing Finish

Marin City's long - awaited cafeteria is nearing completion, according to latest reports. The hotel supply company this week notified the housing authority that priorities have been granted on kitchen equipment.

$1500 Is 1944 Red Cross Quota

Two hundred million dollars is the national quota of the Red Cross 1944 War Fund this year, set for the month of March. Quota for Marin County is $103,500, for Marin City $1500.

Mrs. W. C. Billingsley, Red Cross Blood Donor Service chairman for Marin City, has been named director of the drive and will be assisted by a corps of workers and house-to-house canvassers. Benefit parties are being planned.

The national quota of $200,000,000 for the Red Cross 1944 War Fund represents an increase of $75,000,000 over the 1043 figure, and quotas throughout the nation have been correspondingly upped this year to take care of the heavier demands made upon the Red Cross on the fighting and home fronts.

In the recent War Chest drive at Marinship, $80,000 was subscribed by 60 per cent of the workers, collection by payroll deduction. Of this amount, 13 per cent was turned over to the Marin County chapter of the American Red Cross.

Baseball Season Starts With Team Signups

With the baseball season just around the corner, Marin City fans and players are out drumming up teams. Jess Draper will be manager of teams for ages 13 to 15 years. Pat Straus has taken over managership of the 16- to 19-year-olds baseball clubs.

All boys of these ages interested in joining baseball clubs must secure application blanks. These must be turned in by next Sunday evening to "Marin Citizen" news boxes at the market and Community Center.

Blanks may be obtained from any of the recreation leaders at the gym, rental office, or Teeners' building.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Koenig and baby daughter Marcia, have moved to Windsor, Colorado.

Cadet Nurse

The deft hands of a student nurse prepare instruments for an operation that may save a life. Assisting doctors and nurses in the operating room of the hospital connected with her school of nursing, she gains experience in surgical nursing, contributes valuable service to the war effort. As members of the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps, thousands of students receive complete education for the nursing profession without cost to themselves, with pay as they learn.

Marin County Over Top In Bond Drive

Marin County went a million dollars over its $3,500,000 quota in the Fourth War Loan drive this week. Almost every community in the county went far over the top in the campaign.

Marin City voluntarily took a bond quota, even though all residents are already buying through the Marinship salary deduction plan. More than $8000 in bonds were bought here during the drive.

A high spot in the county's bond drive was three bond auctions held at the Rafael, Sequoia and Lark theaters in San Rafael, Mill Valley and Larkspur. More than $500,000 in bonds were sold on the three nights of the auctions.

Marin County was the first county in the state to go over the top. Its total bond sales during the drive were more than $150,000 over the total sales during the Third War Loan drive totals of last October.

The nation also oversubscribed the national quota of $14,000,000,000, thus showing that most of us realize the importance of backing with our money the invasion of Nazi-held Europe and the wiping out of the Japanese miltarists.

Red Cross Juniors Make Easter Favors

Junior Red Cross members are busy these days making Easter favors for the breakfast trays of soldiers in hospitals. They are filling a special request sent out by the senior organization.

Their quota of favors here is 300, and more workers of 6 and 12 years of age are needed to help. The group meets every Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the Child Care Building No. 1, behind the Community Center.

Housing Authority Cancels Lease; OPA Hearing Results In Conviction and Penalty

The Marin County Housing Authority this week canceled the lease held by Waldo Giacomini for the Marin City Market and advertised for a new store operator.

This week also Giacomini pleaded guilty at an OPA hearing to charges of price ceiling violations made against his establishment by six Marin City residents. His right to sell or deal in meats, directly or indirectly, was suspended for 30 days by R. M. Dulin, acting chief hearing commissioner of the OPA. The same sentence was given to Ed Folger, manager of the store.

These two actions drew to a conclusion the case of the six Marin City residents against the market. Damages of $50 on each of six charges had already been levied against Giacomini in the Sausalito small claims court. Although he had given notice of appeal from these costs, his attorney this week stated that the appeal would be dropped.

The six residents who initiated the action against the market are Michael Smith, the chairman of Marin City Council; Dan Lounsbury, council member; Al Barden, council member; Mrs. Bertha Cleveland, Mrs. Emmett Lounsbury, and Dale Seybold.

Testimony by OPA Inspector Nicholas Diamond at the OPA hearing in San Francisco broungt out the fact that an OPA investigation of the market here had been made last year when more than 20 price violations were uncovered. Warnings were sent the market at that time and Giacomini was given another chance on appeal from the housing authority, Diamond said. Other testimony went to the effect that butchers were instructed to overcharge at the market and get more points than they should.

Tom Ryan, chief enforcement officer of the district office of the OPA, and prosecutor at the OPA hearing, stated that the proceedings were based on the evidence presented by the six Marin City residents. Their cases, he said, enabled the OPA to prosecute the violations of which the market was guilty.

Judge Guy A. Ciocca, executive director of the Housing Authority, in cancelling the lease the market has held here for more than a year, stated that bids for a new operator had been sent out and would be returnable by February 21. Ciocca stated that he was attempting to get a new operator for the store by March 1.

The affair of the market resulted in complete victory for the Marin City Council and residents of the community. Michael Smith, council chairman, pointed out this week a fact that is becoming more apparent daily, that "courage and organization are all that are needed to stop lawbreaking and the price violations which sabotage our war effort."

'Jim Crow' Defeated By Court Action

Marinship's Negro workers yesterday won a victory in their fight for equal rights in the yard when Superior Court Judge Edward I. Butler of San Rafael signed an injunction prohibiting the refusal of employment of Negro workers who refuse to join an auxiliary of the Boilermakers' Union.

The union was ordered to admit Negro workers into membership on the same terms as white persons and was restrained from refusing to accept initiation fees and dues from them. Judge Butler's order also prohibits the union from refusing to grant work clearances to Negro workers who refuse to join the auxiliary local.

The order also directed Marinship to refrain from firing or refusing employment to Negro workers because they do not have a work clearance from the union.

Judge Butler declared in his order: "Action of the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Shipbuilders and Helpers of America, local 6, and its officers and agents, in discriminating against and segregating Negroes into auxiliary unions, is contrary to public policy of the state of California."

The case was taken into Judge Butler's court after the United States District Court had declared it had no jurisdiction in the matter.

The Negro workers taking the case to court have stated that they are not fighting the union, but only the "Jim Crow" auxiliary of the union. All of them have stated that they are strangly in favor of unions if they are democratically conducted.

Chimney Pipes Soon To Be Installed Here

After several weeks unexpected delay, chimney extension pipes to cope with Marin City's soot and fire - extinguishing problems will be installed starting next week.

Installation of the extra pipe lengths will begin in the hill area where the draft situation has been most acute.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meinger have moved to San Francisco.

Advisory Group For Teeners

A Teener's Advisory Committee was appointed last Sunday by the Marin City Council on appeal from Lynn Draper, Teener council representative.

Members appointed were Daniel Allen, Dan Lounsbury and Alex Murphy.

City Council Pushes Drive To Register

The Political Welfare Committee of Marin City's Council is seeking the appointment of three registrars for each of Marin City's three voting precincts, stated Norman Campbell, chairman, at last Sunday's council meeting.

According to present plan, the three proposed registrars would carry on a door-to-door campaign to register every Marin City resident for voting in coming county, state and national elections.

At present there is a registrar stationed at the Community Building every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Residents are urged now to regiser there, until other arrangements are made. Information about absentee ballots, for those who do not choose to change their voting residence from home town to Marin City, may be had from the Community Building registrar.

During the public "Good of Marin Hour" protests were made by residents against the local cleaning establishment. Residents charged that the office accepts the clothes, but disclaims responsibility. Several cases of damaged clothing were reported.

Also protested was the cigarette machine in the lobby of the Community Building. Said one resident, "The school is carrying on an educational campaign against smoking, yet all the children have to do is walk across the street and buy cigarettes from the machine." The possibility of unsupervised vending machine being contrary to the law against selling cigarettes to minors is being investigated by Milen Dempster, project services director, in response to the council complaint.

Another complaint against apartment heating was aired at the meeting. Tenants stated that apartment dwellers still adjust the thermostat, against the wishes of other apartment dwellers.

Merritt Webster stated that the heating system of the apartments was so arranged that it was inevitable that the nearest apartment to the heating plant should be too hot, and the end apartment too cold.

However, he declared, a new processed material is being added to the pipes in hopes of controlling the heat.

In response to W. C. Billingsley's request that a committee be apointed to audit the council's books, management offered the services of the housing authority auditor. Supervising committee members will be Daniel Allen, Norman Campbell and W. C. Billingsley.

Community Fund report was made by Treasurer Billingsley.

School Board Limits Number Of Kindergarten Pupils; Asks FWA Funds for New Building

A limit of 50 children for each of Marin City's two kindergarten classes was set by the Sausalito School Board at their monthly meeting last Monday night. Clifton Boyle, superintendent, who proposed the limitation, stated that the peak has not yet been reached in either of the classes. When the limited enrollment is reached, incoming 5-year-olds will be placed on a waiting list, he stated.

The restriction in these pre-elementary school classes was set because one of the kindergarten teachers has been transferred to one of the high first grade classes. There were formerly three kindergartens here.

Enrollment of both the Marin City and Sausalito schools is now 1268, reported Boyle. Of this number, there are 933 children at the Marin City school. Other enrollment figures showed 31 children in the nursery school and 48 children in the child care center of the extended day care service offered here for children of working parents.

Problem of the school building here, which has not yet been accepted by the school district from its Federal constructors, was again brought up by Boyle at the board meeting. Said Boyle, "Toilet facilities and the heating system are not yet satisfactory."

Boyle recommended to the board that a letter should be written to the State Department of Public Works, advising that agency that the district is not prepared to accept the building as yet.

The fact that no fire insurance is now carried on the building because the Federal Public Housing Authority does not insure its standing property, was also brought out. Boyle also stated that it is illegal for the board to carry insurance on a building which does not belong to them. Therefore, said Boyle, the building must necessarily stand uninsured until it is accepted by the board. He declared that $500 in repairs of the building had so far been saved by the non-acceptance.

The board also took action in requesting the superintendent to apply for Federal Works Agency funds for the construction of a Child Services building. The extended day care program is now housed in the overcrowded Community Building here.

Boyle requested that the board consider raising teachers' salaries for the coming year's budget. He stated, "We cannot financially compete with other school districts in hiring teachers."

Possibility of a shortage of teachers next year due to low salaries here, was implied in his report.

No Moving Allowed From House to House

There will be no moving from hill houses to houses nearer the center of Marin City without the written orders from a doctor this week declared Merritt Webster of the Housing Authority. The doctor's order must show that the move is physically imperative. A $15 transfer fee will still be charged, he stated.

Reasons for the limitation upon inter-project moving is that housing delays of from five to 14 days are caused every time a family shifts from one house to another here.

Webster declared that with a waiting list of families urgently requesting housing in Marin City, such delays could not be tolerated.

Attendance Law To Be Enforced

Enforcement of the school attendance law started in Marin City this week with the appointment of Clifton Boyle, superintendent, as attendance officer. Boyle assumed the new role at last Monday's Sausalito School Board meeting when he offered to serve extra hours after school each day, without salary increase.

One of the new truant officer's first actions here was outlining the California school attendance law.

"The state law prescribes compulsory attendance for all children between the ages of 8 and 12. Illness of the child is the only legal excuse for absence. Tardiness is considered an absence. Any child may be reported as a truant who shall have been tardy on more than three days; any absence for a part of a day being regarded as a tardiness," stated Boyle.

Parents are required by law to write an excuse stating the reason for absence. No child should return to school after an absence without a written excuse. Boyle declared that a physician's certificate may be requested when children are absent for illness.

"Parents who keep children out of school to help at home in cases of illness of other members of the family are violating the California child labor laws," Boyle said.

"Parents of children who are guilty of illegal absence can be taken to court on a misdemeanor charge," he explained.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roddy and son Cleveland, left Marin City. Mr. Roddy is going into the Army.

Town Hall To Discuss Presidency

"For President — Who's Your Man?" will be Mike Smith's subject for next Sunday's Town Hall meeting at 7:30 in the Community Center. After a short speech, there will be open discussion on the subject. Everyone is urged to turn out and attend.

Town Hall committee invites newcomers to join and plan program, so that Town Hall can be a true expression of opinion from Marin City.

Speakers are scheduled from within Marin City. Prominent people from the outside are invited to speak also. On certain dates, discussions are supplemented by movies. If you wish to receive programs for February and March, drop your name and address in "Citizen" news boxes and it will be mailed to you.

Mrs. Al Westin is recuperating after a serious operation at the Stanford-Lane Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Koch attended the Annual Boy Scout Banquet which was held in the new Scout building in San Rafael last week.

Ciocca Goes To Washington To Support Budget

Judge Guy A. Ciocca, executive director of Marin County Housing Authority, left this week to attend a national committee meeting of the National Association of Housing officials, of which he is president of the Pacific Southwest Council.

He will also visit Washington, D.C. to lobby against budget cuts in the Federal Public Housing Authority's budget. Items which are now being curtailed due to the recent slash by Congress, are maintenance and operation, personel and salaries, and project services. Budget, as it now stands for Marin City, Tiburon, Hamilton Field, Alto Trailer Camp (all included in the Marin County Housing Authority) is $150,000.

Five More Kids Needed For Dance Group

Ten mothers have signed up their children for the dancing class which is being organized here. Only five more names are needed to get the group started.

Interested mothers who want to see the group get going should write or see Mrs. Marthat Roberts at the Community Building, stating the child's age and name.

Teener Revue Gets Going With Dances

Girls' dance teams for the coming Teener Revue are hard at work every Wednesday on the auditorium stage from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Line routines are being directed by Mrs. Bobbie Brickell, volunteer worker with vast experience in big-time variety shows.

Mrs. Brickell needs more girls, preferably tall ones, between the ages of 14 and 19. They do not need previous experience bue must be willing to work hard and report regularly for practice. The chorus girls are now working on a hula dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Cohn have moved to Mill Valley.

Lots of Money But No Federal Funds Arrive

Financial report of the Sausalito School District on February 14 shows an indebtedness of $3569.35, as well as $5832.11 in outstanding bills, as related at the school board meeting last Monday. Balance on hand is $2262.72.

Recent deposits from the Federal Public Housing Authority, in lieu of local taxes, brought $18,037.36 into the school treasury. Of this, $11,462 was placed in a bond sinking fund.

Expected money here includes $14,087.60 from the state, $9548.82 from district taxes, and $48,735 from Federal Lanham Act money. So far, not one penny of Federal money to run this war emergency school has yet come through, stated Superintendent Clifton Boyle.

Easy to Shop With New OPA Tokens

Shopping will become easier for both housewives and merchants when the OPA Ration Token Plan goes into effect on February 27, it was predicted today by F. C. Herrick, chairman of the local War Price and Ration Board. With the inauguration of the token plan, all red and blue stamps will become automatically worth ten points, regardless of the number stamped on them.

Shoppers presenting these stamps to merchants for the purchase of rationed food will be given blue or red tokens worth one point each in change. These tokens will have no expiration date and will be valid for the duration of rationing. Banks have begun delivery of tokens to merchants in multiples of 250 on February 17, and merchants who have not already made arrangements for a supply of tokens are asked to do so at once.

The OPA, together with the War Production Board, has also taken steps to augment the supply of bed linen available to consumers. In order to stimulate full production of these essential consumer goods, manufacturers have been granted a limited price increase of about 4½ to 5 cents per sheet. This price increase to manufacturers will not result in higher prices to consumers since it will be absorbed by retailers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Nelleman have gone to Los Angeles to make their home.

Romantic Wartime Wedding Ends Whirlwind Courtship Here

In a breathless three-day whirl last week, Ruby Miller accepted her Navy sweetheart's proposal in Marin City; married him in Reno, Nev.; spent a honeymoon in San Francisco, and left here last Monday to rejoin him at Seattle.

This romantic wartime wedding started on Thursday when Laurence Dale Willis, first class petty officer of the U. S. Navy, flew to Marin City from Ohio with only two days left of his leave, but with a determination to marry Ruby before he reported back to duty.

Assembling a hasty trousseau, Ruby motored off to Reno with Laurence and they were married there on Friday. The bride and groom were accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. E. Miller, and a friend, Miss Wanda Walls of Marin City.

The wedding party returned the same day, and the new Mr. and Mrs. Willis spent a one-night honeymoon in San Francisco.

Then the groom flew to Seattle on Saturday to report for duty, and the bride stayed with her parents here at A37 before leaving on Monday to rejoin him there.

The romance started here over a year ago when Warren Miller, brother of the bride and U.S.N coxswain, brought his friend Laurence to the Miller home while they were on leave together. They are stationed on the same U.S. destroyer.

It was love at first sight for Ruby and Laurence. Their courtship was carried on through two short leaves which the new groom spent with his sweetheart here and through volumes of letters which they exchanged.

During her stay at Marin City Ruby has been a popular member of the Teener group. She was recently elected assistant Teener matron of their organization.

Darlene Caterino Has Birthday

A party was given last week in honor of Darlene Caterino's eighth birthday.

Guests were Donna Turk, Peggy Ann Smith, Goldie Kaplan, Sandra and Stephie Harbrich, Tommy Turk and Lenny Roberts.

A variety of games were played and prizes awarded. The birthday luncheon was served by Mrs. Leo Caterino, hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Frank Caterino.

Order of the Purple Heart was recently awarded post-humously to Erwin L. Searle, Gunner's Mate Third Class, of the United States Navy. He was killed December 7, 1941, while on active duty the day the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor.

The medal was awarded here to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Searle, parents of Erwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Olson received word from their son, Technical Sgt. R. J. Olson of the Air Force, who is stationed some where in England, that he has been promoated to Master Sergeant. Russell has been in the service for three and one-half years, and in England for two years.

The Olson's other son Lloyd, who lived here with his parents until he enlisted in the Naval Defense last August, and has been stationed at Pearl Harbor since last October, writes that he likes it there. He has been transferred to the Naval Air Station and is going to school at the University of Hawaii, where he is continuing drafting and geometry.

Mrs. Harmon Smith's brother David Clemins, who is machinist mate First Class in the United States Navy, was awarded a long distance phone call recently by a New York newspaper. He is convalescing from an appendicitis operation in a Brooklyn hospital.

Because Mrs. Smith, like all Marin City residents, has no telephone, the call went through to their sister at Orland, Calif.

Pvt. Harold Cummings, nephew of Mrs. J. T. Freshour of A37, writes that he expects to be sent overseas shortly. He is now stationed near Los Angeles. Mrs. Freshour has two other nephews in the service from whom she has not recently heard. One is in the Marines, the other is with the Air Corps.

Pvt. Clifford Points, husband of Mrs. Points who is a Marinship war worker, left yesterday after a nine-day leave spent here with his wife. Points enlisted in the Army last May when he was working as a Marinship welder. He is serving in the Tank Destroyer Corps.

Staff Sergeant Paul M. Smith of Roberts Field, California, was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Smith of house 600 over last week end. The Smiths have two other sons in the service, stationed at Fort Benning.

School Nurse Dulcie Green drives 530 miles per month on her professional duties at the Sausalito Central and Marin City grade schools.

Fire Marshal Prohibits Foster Homes in City

The state fire marshall declared this week that he could not recommend any Marin City house as a foster home, due to fire hazards. His decision will go to the State Department of Social Welfare which awards licenses to women who provide foster homes for children of working parents here.

The marshall's refusal to recommend fire clearance of houses here is due to two main hazards —storage oil tanks are not 10 feet from the house, and there is only one exit, which would be blocked in case of explosion by space heaters.

Foster home licenses, which cannot be obtained without fire clearance, are legally required for women who take care of children outside the child's home.

The decision is being appealed by Mrs. Marie Larson, whose USO Travelers' Aid cottage is the office through which local women clear who seek or offer care for children.

Teener Court Sets Sentence For Violations

Tried by an enlarged Teener council meeting, which held forth in lieu of a jury, four Teeners were given sentences of suspension last week. The jury could not legally function pending the adoption of by-laws by the Teeners' mass meeting.

Sentences set were: Konrad Knudsen, two days' suspension from the "399" clubhouse and the Teener organization; Victor Hoppe, 10 days; Jerome Hoppe, two days.

All were suspended for violating house rules concerning use of property given to the Teeners by the Housing Authority. The suspensions become active as of March 1.

Rules for outside guests were also established at the last meeting of the council. Teeners are free to bring outside guests if they pay the 25-cent fee required per guest, per evening.

Teeners, whose guests violate house rules, will have their membership cards withdrawn for a period decided upon by the house committee.

Square Dancers Have Visitors From Sonoma

Last Monday night's square dance here was enlivened by the addition of a fiddle and guitar. Local musicians Dal Powell of house 230 and O. A. Knight of A24 - 29 played through the evening without stopping.

The dancers are getting smoother, and old-timers are so good now that they can help a newcomer through the steps with no confusion at all.

A special event is scheduled for April 1 in the auditorium when Santa Rosa square dancers visit here.

THE WEEK'S BEST SHOWS

By ANNIE OAKLEY

Hollywood's first serious effort to use its talents in the fight against juvenile delinquency is meeting with resounding success, at least at the box office. Whether "Where Are Our Children" will have a marked effect on the morals of the younger generation is questionable, but if jingling coins at the ticket window is any indication, it must be a very good movie. Jackie Cooper, Patricia Morrison and Gale Storm are the principals in a lurid tale of spiked drinks, stolen cars, and general evil-doings You can see it next week at the Gate.

In the meantime the local bills for this week are exceptionally good. The Marin starts the week on Saturday with the Charles Boyer production itled "Flesh and Fantasy," with quite a collection of stars in addition to Mr. Boyer. Robert Benchley wanders through the picture getting an education in ghosts and fantasy.

The Marin's second bill for the week is one of the best to hit Sausalito in a very long time and brings to mind something that has been bothering me for months.

It is quite evident that Hollywood cannot turn out new pictures fast enough to meet the phenomenal demand now existent. It is also evident that it is therefore necessary to reissue old pictures. That's all right. What I would like to know is why have they been reissuing all of the stinkeroos that have been made since 1930? Where are all of the good pictures that have been made in the past — the Marx Brothers masterpieces — "The Informer," "The Scoundrel," "The Long Voyage Home," to mention but a few. Anyway, the bill at the Marin starting Tuesday revives my faith a lot. "The Ghost Goes West," which dates back to about 1935, is one of the five pictures I have seen three times and still enjoyed. It can't be described. All I can say is— go see it. You'll see on the same bill another of the first-class oldies, Leslie Howard's "Scarlet Pimpernel," which is still a classic in romantic portrayals.

Sewing Need Is Great Says Red Cross

Women who can make their contribution to the war effort by sewing and knitting, particularly mothers of service men, are invited to attend the Red Cross sewing and knitting group which meets every Wednesday from 1:30 to 4 p.m. in the lounge room of the Community Building.

On hand there is yarn for helmets, kit bags to be sewn, and yarn for beginners to learn on. Additional material to be worked at home may be taken out any time during the afternoon's gathering.

Furthermore, additional working materials may be secured at any time from the Sausalito Red Cross chapter if there is a heavy demand for it here.

The sewing group is sponsored by the Marin City Women's Club, with Mrs. Harvey McGuire as production chairman.

Valentine Dance Honors Entry Into Marines

A crowd of about 150 men and officers with their hostesses attended the Valentine formal dancing party at the Sausalito Service Men's Club last Tuesday night.

The evening was also a special event honoring Miss Virginia Lindberg of Marin City, who is entering service with the Marine Corps.

The entire building was specially decorated with valentines and hearts, and formed a harmonious background for the boys in uniform and the lovely hostesses in formal gowns.

At 9:30 came intermission and the entire party trooped upstairs to the dining room where the ladies of Marin City Civilian Defense had prepared a party supper. Tables were arranged banquet style, with Miss Lindberg in the place of honor. Before her was placed a huge cake, beautifully decorated,—a surprise arranged by her friends there. They also presented her with a farewell gift of a handsome fountain pen.

Marin City ladies who prepared and served the supper under the expert management of Mrs. Everett Fitch were Mesdames Dale Dinsmore, Earl James, Sam Herman, R. W. Cooper, C. W. Graves and W. C. Billingsley.

The People Win!

The case of the people of Marin City against Waldo's Marin City Market came to a victorious conclusion for the people this week. Waldo Giacomini pleaded guilty to the charges made against him, and the Marin County Housing Authority canceled his lease and advertised for a new market operator.

Credit for exposing and finally righting a bad situation goes to the Marin City Council and to the six residents who had the courage to file court charges against the market. The city council in an organized fashion took the complaints of many citizens who were being preyed upon and whose pocketbooks were taking a beating and secured justice for them. The six residents who filed the charges carried out the decisions of the council.

As Mike Smith, city council chairman, said this week, "courage and organization" did the job.

A new market operator is expected to take over on March 1. He will receive the sincere support of the entire community—a community which has grown tired of having to suspect its only market of price violations on every purchase.

We think a word of commendation should go to the OPA for the way its board members and officials handled this case. Their wholehearted cooperation with consumers who had exposed price violations did much to educate all who buy commodities to the necessity of continually being on the alert.

A word of thanks, too, is due to Judge Guy A. Ciocca and the Marin County Housing Authority for their action canceling Giacomini's lease on the market.

Finally, we cannot help but point out the value of a free press in exposing conditions of this kind. "The Marin Citizen" from the very beginning of this case has been frank and fearless in its statements. Its belief that honesty is always the best policy has kept the entire citizenry informed about all the steps which were taken to eliminate the evil.

The people have won—just as the people will always win if they have the courage to organize for their rights.

Washington's Words

Two hundred and eleven years ago Tuesday George Washington was born, destined to become his country's father, an immortal for all the world.

He led the Continental Army in a successful struggle for a great ideal—freedom. And he became the first President of a nation "conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal."

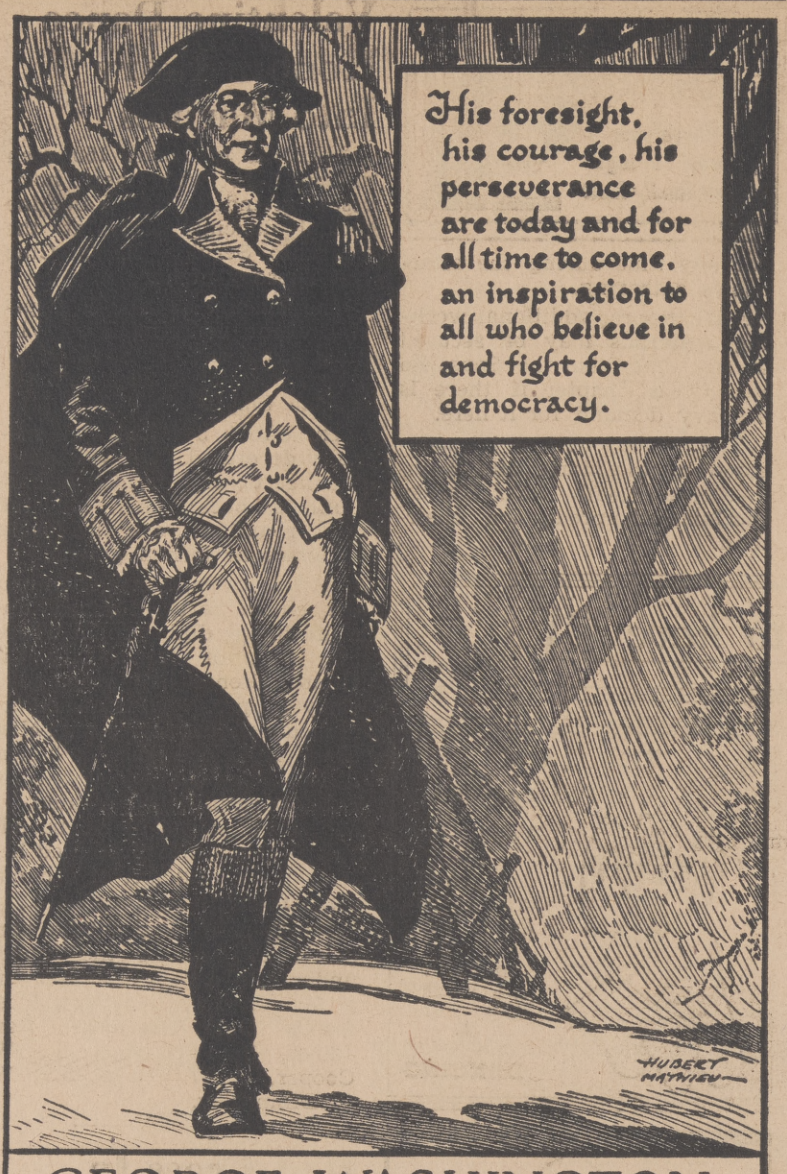
If Washington were here today he would find his country again at war fighting for the same ideals—freedom from want, freedom from fear and freedom of religion. And he would see, as he did in the founding days, many men of differing national origins and of differing religions fighting together as a team, united by a common bond.

He would be appalled, if he were here today, at evidences of bigotry on the home front, at the attempts of Axis agents and Nazi stooges to divide us, to turn the Christian against the Jew, the foreign-born against the native, whites against Negroes.

And Washington, no doubt, would be prompted to repeat these memorable words he wrote in a letter to the Jewish congregation of Newport:

"The citizens of the United States of America have the right to applaud themselves for having given to mankind examples of an enlarged and liberal policy worthy of imitation.

"All possess alike liberty of conscience and immunities of citizenship. It is now no more that toleration is spoken of as if it was by the indulgence of one class of people that enjoyed the exercise of their inherent natural rights. For happily the Government of the United States, which gives to bigotry no sanction, to persecution no assistance, requires only that they who live under its protection, should demean themselves as good citizens, in giving it on all occasions their effectual support. . . .'



His foresight, his courage, his perseverance are today and for all time to come, an inspiration to all who believe in and fight for democracy.
HUBERT MATHIEU

The SOAP BOX...

By THE EDITOR

The following legal advertisement was inserted in the county newspapers this week. We think it makes good reading so we're reprinting it here.

INVITATION TO BID

Sealed bids will be received at the office of the Housing Authority of the County of Marin until the 21st day of February, 1944, upon the percentage of gross receipts offered as rental for the grocery, meat and vegetable concession at Marin City, California. Accommodation for said concession is a building approximately 50'x150', together with equipment now located therein, except for incidental equipment owned by the present concessionaire.

The Housing Authority reserves the right to reject any and all bids at its sole discretion.

Successful bidder will be required to enter into a lease upon terms and conditions stipulated by the Authority.

Dated: February 14, 1944.

HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN,

We think that the people here should know something of what is going on in Marin County political life. After all, we live here and work here and are vitally effected by all of the political decisions made in the county. From time to time we expect to have something to say about these political happenings.

The most important thing now is for all of us to become registered voters. It's easy to do. All you have to do is go down to the Community Center some day before April 6 between the hours of 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. and sign up. You have to have been in the state for a year, the county 90 days and Marin City 40 days. Those are the only requirements. There is no poll tax and no other requirements but residence. Everyone who is 21 or over, who is a United States citizen and who satisfies the residence requirements listed in this column can become a registered voter.

Some of you may wonder why we think voting is so important. If those persons would stop to consider, they wouldn't wonder any longer. We are fighting a long and bitter war for the right to vote. Our fighting men are dying on bloody ground just so that people like us can have the privilege of voting for the people we think can best represent us in local, state and national government offices. If we fail to vote we fail to live up to the trust that those fighting men have placed in us. Every vote that we cast is one more ballot cast for our American democracy.

That's why we think registering to vote is important!

Pretty soon there will be an election to fill a position on the Sausalito School District Board. Our Marin City schools are in that district. In fact they are by far the largest part of that district. We have no representation on the board. We think we should have. If enough of us register and vote we can have!

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I wish to make a protest on the ruthless way the men who fill the oil barrels trample our flowers and garden.

When asked to take more care, he was very impolite and asked us what we could do about it.

Now we are all trying to make our places homes while we live here.

We ask what can be done about him.
